The Book of Mormon (BoFM) is filled with fantastic verses about how America is a land of promise, choice above all other lands, designed/foreordained by the Lord to be a prosperous land of liberty for a righteous people, as long as its inhabitants worship the God of the land, who is Jesus Christ. If not, they will be swept off when they ripen in iniquity.

It features two civilizations that were both destroyed when they ripened in iniquity. The Jaredites were led here by the Lord in barges at the time of the scattering at the Tower of Babel. The Lehiters, who split into Nephites and Lamanites, were led from Jerusalem in 600 B.C. just before <sup>their inhabitants were</sup> it was taken into Babylon. It's the "stick of Joseph" prophesied to become one with the "stick of Judah" Bible (Ezk. 37:15-28).

"11 And this [BoFM] cometh unto you, O ye Gentiles, that [mission statement] ye may know the decrees of God—that ye may repent and not continue in your iniquities until the fulness come, that ye may not bring down the fulness of the wrath of God upon you as the inhabitants of the land have hitherto done.

12 Behold, this is a choice land, and whatsoever
