- (6) Movie: "Believer" ©2018 Addresses Dan Reynolds, musician's cause to bring LGBTQ into LDS acceptance, stop calling it "a sin" to act on these tendencies, culminated with "Mormon Woodstock" with "Love Loud" concert/rally in Provo, UT. Cited Church's encouragement of the event (in Aug. 26, 2017) a week prior, bumped ticket sales from < 9k to 20k sell-out. Follow-up Gen Conf, Pres. Oaks doubled down on LDS position. [I did not detect "righteousness" in the activists, but I saw satanic rebellion, giving in to desires of the flesh. Yes we should love the sinner, but must not embrace the sin. I was deeply troubled to realize that the lead singer <sup>tyler colein (?)</sup> for Neon Trees was a former missionary turned into a blatant homosexual, rebelling against God and the Church. The host for KBYU's "Grace Notes" show is a drummer for that band. It airs several times each week.]
