

Dear Tudor,

12/19/23

Enclosed are three letters to be distributed in the coming days. I'd like these to be listed in the blog. Once the II is activated for you & me — on 1/1, 9:25 am Mountain when you & I have our shared theophany experience, according to the present timeline scenario; then all of my writings will be accessible — transcribed, formatted, cleaned up, in the ^{preferred} language of the reader. When they go to "the site," the options available to them will be what will be optimal / timely for them to read/see.

I'm going to send this now (2:40 pm) to be fwd'd to you, so you can see them and see a sampling of my logistical / strategic thinking through things. Remember what Jesse Kelly says about logistics planners. That's me.
