(9.9) Movie: "We Bought a Zoo" Matt Damon ©2011

Story of Dartmore Zoological Park (in CA?)

I absolutely love this movie. It's a great illustration of the "all-in" attitude, as well as (not overtly) the elements of the "synced up" (with ^{intuition} God) aspect. Following your (God-given) dream, overcoming huge obstacles. Great romantic plot, too.

"It's not about where the adventure ends, it's where it begins. Everything else is a bonus." — is what he proclaimed on the 7/7/2010(?) launch — anniversary of when it was aired (again) here (KBYU). I also liked his quote about the value of having "20 seconds of insane courage."

(9) StoryTV "Hamilton: to Build a Country" (?) History "Celebrating America"

Chief aid to Washington, who didn't have children. (Hamilton was orphaned). First US Treasurer, established banking system, currency, coins, A primary author of Federalist Papers. [Too Patron central gov. inclined end of the spectrum.]. Patron saint of Wall Street. [Great illustration of someone following their God-ordained life calling, despite great opposition, ^{mistakes along the way.}]

(9.4) KBYU "The Chosen" new episode: Jesus rides colt into Jer.

[I don't care for how contentious Jesus is portrayed at times. I see him saying "hypocrite" with a ^{stern} smile and love, not caustic.]

• KBYU 4:55am sunset SeverAtSea.com ^{Olis Orton} family heads heads out alone on boat for a year, adventure, surviving, trusting,

"Turn worry into wonder." "If I'm the hero in (2) the story of my life, what do I want to do next?"

• Come Follow Up Alma 17-22. Allison Hong Merrill told how she would teach the principle of tithing while on a mission in Korea, where they are very frugal and not at all inclined to let go of 10% for the Lord. She and her companion would bring 10 apples to gift to the investigator(s), which would be gladly received. After a while, they'd ask for one, which the investigator would gladly ~~receive~~ ^{give back}. The next week would be similar, but with an apple ^{there} pie. You can extrapolate where it went from there. Mos. 26? & Alma 27? What motivated Lamoni to repent is the same as what spurred Alma to repent. Alma 18:21 had a heart for his people.

• This Week ABC Re-airing of Stephanopoulos' one-on-one with Biden. "I didn't listen to my instincts" [intuition, "get some rest, peace" - not a message a tyrant will heed]. Q- Did you watch the debate later? A. "I don't think I did." [Something like that in the last week is not something you forget. Obvious lie.] "I'm running the world" [says a Satan-powered global tyrant]. "It's about the character of the President" [Marxist, in their case]
