

Prayer = Good Practice for Telepathic Communication

To: Epoch Times Editorials

Cc:

by Sterling D. Allan, 228033

Sept. 1, 2022

We live in a day when, if we continue in the revival of waking up, repenting, and taking effective action, then we can bring the kingdom of heaven to earth. One of the gifts of the Spirit that will be made available to the ~125 million joint heirs of Christ (Rev. 5:10, 11) at the launch of the Millennium is telepathy — communication <sup>mind to mind</sup> at the speed of thought. It could start rolling out in weeks or months from now among the first to start cascading into that honorable body of Christs (joint heirs).

Today, it occurred to me that personal prayer time is a great time to begin practicing this form of communication.

Previously, in my private prayers, I formed sentences in my mind. I've been aware that the heavens are able to detect attitude, intentions, motivations, tangential wishes. But why not actually embrace that personal prayer time as a great opportunity to develop telepathic communion. I can't help but think that the two-way dialogue will increase when doing this.

The Infinite Interface (II) that I discussed in the "We'll Never Know" = Not So" editorial, will also enable Full-fidelity, eye to eye (Isa. 52:8) communication, including telepathic dialogue among fellow joint heirs of Christ.

Speaking of the II, I was reminded today of this great quote that is consistent with the notion of the II. It was said by Russell M. Nelson, President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in April, 2018 when he was sustained as the new prophet of the Church.

I transcribed the quote from a radio snippet that played several times, from his talk, "Ask, Seek, Knock." He said, "Ever better than modern technology is the ability to receive revelation directly from heaven. [II]

Context →

... without hardware, software, or monthly service fees. It's an amazing gift. Almost sounds too good to be true - to access info from heaven." That ^ the II, providing <sup>will be idealized with</sup> ~~access~~

Storby D. Allan <sup>hummm capability, including</sup> II and Coming.com telepathic communication.

#TelepathicPrayer #IIandComing