George Noory of CZC and Frank Graffney of RAV TV, among several others, have been strong watchmen about the need for modern civilization to prepare our electrical grid for the likelihood of an electromagnetic pulse (EMP). It could come as a massive solar flare or as a weaponized attack from e.g. Russia, China or N. Korea. (See new documentary film: GridDownPowerUp.com by David Tice.)

More than three decades ago, I learned that three strategically placed hydrogen bomb detonations over the ionosphere would wipe out most all electronic devices in the entire continental United States.

The detonations would create Compton electrons that would set up an electromagnetic potential so strong that it would melt/destroy the small wiring found in circuits. Some military components are hardened to withstand this, but all other electronics would be rendered permanently useless in about 10 nanoseconds, nationwide.

We would not just be thrust into a dark ages type existence. They knew how to live off the land; we don't. A 1% survival rate is optimistic.

The most clear prophecy about this is in Micah 5:8-15. Addressing the remnant of Jacob who could wield destruction on the Gentiles, verses 10 & 11 say, "I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots. And I will cut off the cities of thy land..." Pretty much everything in modern civilization involves electronics, including vehicles<sup>and</sup> gas pumps. Ominous. "Cut" and "off" both have a plainly literal application in an electrical context.

The good news is that this Micah passage was cited by Jesus in 3 Ne. 21:12-21. He adds two key points in the above quotation. First, he adds the caveat, "except they repent." In other words, if we repent sufficiently as a people, this probable future will be turned away. Second, he adds the string, "Saieth the Father," signaling that this repentance clause is offered to us by God the Father,

I elaborate on this in my book, None to One: Evoking the Repentance Clause of Prophecy, available from IIndComing.com.
