Forum/Social Media Post Ideas About This New Paradigm

PREFACE

I realize my paradigm is way outside the box, and that my life also has elements that repel pretty much everyone. Hence, in all these years of setting forth my material, though many — or even most — see elements they find interesting and agree with, the package is too much, so everyone keeps their distance from (A) embracing it, or even (B) spreading word of it to anyone, lest they be seen as somehow in agreement and have their reputation shamed. Though my IndComing.org website has been up since May 9, and has had a trickle of traffic, at first; from June 14-Aug. 3 the drip, drip diminished to only two brief visits to the site.

I can relate to Moses 6:38, "...There is a strange thing in the land; a wild man hath come among us." That was said of Enoch. I realize many people like to think of themselves as "wild"/"strange" compared to the status quo, but I'm so strange that even they think I'm strange.

I believe that my message is the most important on the planet right now. We don't have to crash to rock bottom as a society — which is where we're headed. If a sufficient core of society repents, turning back to God and goodness, then the destructions and captivity to which we've been headed will be averted, and we can go straight to the kingdom of heaven on earth, instead. My book, None to One: Evoking the Repentance Clause of Prophecy (N→O), available from the site, elaborates on this.

I think it is a glorious paradigm, and I show from the scriptures how it is predicted—in astonishing detail elaborated in a code I found in the alphabetical sequence of words and the numbers associated therewith.

The ~120⁺ editorials I have on the site address a wide range of topics—pushing the envelope beyond what you hear/read most anywhere else. The blog posts build on what I present in my book—WAY out ahead of even some of the most cutting-edge thinking.

One of the primary reasons people run away from my writings is because I believe I am Heavenly Father incarnate; but I also believe everyone is called to be Immanuel (“I have said, Ye are Gods; and all of you are children of the most High.” Ps. 82:6; Isa. 41:23.). In Strong's 2007, the meaning for “Israel” is given as “he shall rule as God.” That's our intended destiny as the people of God. Have you heard anyone else point this (H3478) super important thing out? Yet, there it is, hidden in plain sight, as are most of these things I've found.

I believe the formula for thus becoming a joint heir of Christ / Church of the Firstborn is encapsulated in just four words, "all-in, synced up." It's a matter of finding and embracing one's unique mission in life, all in, for good; and syncing up with God, to be directed in all things you do.

That requires embracing the gospel of Jesus Christ to overcome one's sins. And there is nothing you can do that you can't repent of and overcome — as illustrated by my life. No, I'm not the least bit proud of my offenses, especially of the pedophile variety — the very lowest dregs in our society's perspective.

The paradox is utterly repulsive — and glorious from a perspective of not ~~giving~~ giving up, repenting, overcoming, as a way shower for everyone to not give up, thinking they've fallen too far, but repenting and overcoming and going all-in with their magnificent, unique calling in life, synced up with God. If I can do it, so can you.

Most religions teach that there is nothing you can do that you can't repent of. But do you believe it when it comes to someone like me? I do.

Take a hard look at Isa. 57:15-19, especially vs. 17, 18 about an addict ("covetousness" \approx cravings) like me being fully healed by God. Another Messianic prophecy that depicts sinning is Ps. 69:5.

Remember, before we were born, we planned our life to test us to our core, proportional to our soul ⁴ age and ability to overcome - not more, not less. So, my ⁴ testing

So, yes, I can see why people shy away from me; but that doesn't make it okay. I have tons of fabulous material to share - better than anything anyone else has brought forth. It's huge; "Great and marvelous" is ~~its~~ one of its prophetic labels.

Don't run away because it's "strang" or "wild" (Moses 6:38). "The people of the Lord shall not be ashamed" is the prophetic word about this "again the second time" advent (2 Ne. 6:13, 14). Pay close attention. Share it around. Embrace it as you come to realize it is true. Become ChofFB to provide divine leadership in the emerging Millennium, becoming one with God, as God, with full access to all the wisdom, power, and gifts of God, doing your specific role in the body of Christ.

A truism I feature is that when you do what you love, what you were born to do for God, you bring heaven to earth for yourself; and when enough people do this world-wide, we'll have the kingdom of heaven on earth. "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." (Matt. 6:10) is the objective of my ministry.

It's consistent with the summary sentence of the scriptures - something I discovered as a teenager and have never heard/read of anyone else expounding/pointing out. As you read this, ask yourself has been extremely rigorous.

if this summary sentence isn't (A) obvious, (B) very important, and (C) deserving of keen attention. John (21:25) said that he supposed "the world itself could not contain [all] the books that should be written" of the "many other things which Jesus did." Yet in Matt. 4:17 is summarized everything Jesus ever said, in a short, 9-word sentence.

"17 ¶ From that time, Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

I don't know of any other person, group, or organization that better aligns with that injunction than what I am seeking to bring about.

The point I'm trying to make here is that I do have something deserving of careful consideration. Even if you're not ready to embrace it, I hope you can see enough glimmers to at least preface your share (telling others they ought to/might take a look) with whatever disclaimer you choose, to distance yourself, until you're ready to do so without shame. The idea is to remedy the 8th-year problem: "And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not" (John 1:5; see also Isa. 5:20...)
