While conservatives decry socialism, they don't seem to understand a very crucial aspect of socialism. I've never heard it articulated more concisely and brilliantly than by Ezra Taft Benson. He served as U.S. Secretary of Agriculture under Eisenhower (sp?)—while being an Apostle of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, later becoming President of the Church. He played a huge role in my awakening, serving as a true watchman.

He said that Socialism/Communism is an earthly manifestation of the plan Satan presented/proposed in the pre-mortal councils, taking a third of the hosts with him, cast out to earth to dwell in spirit form (demons). His plan had the same appeal as the Marxist philosophy: everyone will be taken care of, no one will be lost, <sup>[safety net]</sup> but it will be done by force at the expense of freedom (Moses 4:1, 3). That war is now being waged on earth for those of us who accepted Jesus' plan and are incarnating here.

Yes, we are supposed to take care of each other, responding to needs that arise. That is fundamental to the Judeo-Christian ethic. However, freedom is also fundamental to that ethic. Using the force of government to this (= Socialism) is anti-Christ. These needs should be taken case of through voluntary, loving, charitable giving — which Americans are very good at doing. Given the inefficiencies of governmental programs (which are cold and meant to propagate dependency), donations to voluntary organizations will go much more to helping the needy. I would guess that the ratio is somewhere around 4:1 voluntary: govt. in efficiency, but more than that in overall effectiveness.

In my book, None to One: Evoking the Repentance Clause of Prophecy (available from IndComing.com), I present proposed text for an amendment to the Constitution (Appendix C-2) encapsulating the above. It also requires a phasing out of existing Socialist welfare programs, e.g. Obama Care, Medicaid, Medicare, Social Security, Pell Grants, COVID relief, etc.

No, America is not yet ready to accept this proposal. However, I'm sure they will be, after the Pentecost-like revival, collective mighty change of heart (Foretold in Isa. 66:8; Zech. 3:9) From the 2 Chron. 7:14 prayer event that could happen any day now, I see that event featuring Pres. Trump serving as the people's voice, offering the prayer, kneeling with the audience of ~400 mil. viewers. In it, he will itemize America's sins, ask for forgiveness, which will be followed by a Pentecostal outpouring (2 Chron. 7:1).

Then, the country (and world) will be ready for this amendment to the status quo Socialist default. Oh, and we'll also see a rapid roll-out of the kingdom of heaven on earth. And the stone which the builders refused will become the head stone of the corner — for all of us
