One of the most embarrassing talking points among conservative <sup>hosts</sup> over the last <sup>decade</sup> of years has been to berate "Dr." Jill Biden as not being a <sup>(as in medical doctor)</sup> doctor. It bespeaks a massive lack of understanding of a very well-understood nomenclature in academia. Those who receive a doctoral degree are thereafter given the "Dr." title in front of their name. It doesn't just refer to medical doctors.

Everytime a conservative host belittles "Dr." Jill Biden as not being a doctor (not true), they (A) belittle themselves in the eyes of people (e.g. well educated) who know better, and (B) make the whole conservative movement look ridiculously ignorant.
