Mouses

(9.7) Pearl Harbor An excellent depiction of heroism in the midst of the surprise attack - heroism (attack on Tokyo) that likely changed the trajectory of flagging morale. Great music.

(5) Dunkirk Depressing, not at all inspiring. Horrible music. I think it was purposely designed as negative propaganda.

(8.5) Seal Team Six [I can't help think this is a propaganda piece to entrain their bogus narrative. ^{truth is} 9/11 was an inside job. BinLaden was a pawn who died years earlier. ^{than} I have to admit that this film is very believable. But ^{far} even more people had to go along with all the cover-up lies ^{about} 9/11 than of this alleged raiding of BinLaden.]
