The BYU Forum speaker on Nov. 30 (my birthday) was socialist, Dr./Pastor¹ William Barber, II, who passionately advocated for "mak[ing] ending poverty a top legislative priority." (NBCU) (12/13 8pm)

He failed to make a crucial point. I agree completely that we as Christians have a moral obligation to take care of the needy. ^{it needs to be done voluntarily, not by force.} But President Benson drove home this point through out his apostolic and prophetic ministry, ^{(Ezk. 33:20-33), saying} that turning this responsibility over ^{to} the hands of government, which is force (paying taxes is not optional), is (A) socialism, which is (B) Satan's plan now manifesting on earth. It embodies Satan's ^{pre-existence} promise that no one will be lost, every one will be taken care of, but at the price of agency. (Moses 4:1,3). That is precisely the argument that Dr. Barber elaborated — ^{for} and ^{whole} which the audience gave him a standing ovation.
