The unruly protests on liberal campuses by radical Marxists in favor of Palestinians and against Israel exhibits their ultimate objective of divide-and-conquer destruction of Free America (Ether 8:25), which trumps their social justice agenda, which is also designed to destroy Free America by eroding our moral foundation.

You don't have to be a rocket scientist to see how radical the Palestinians are in being violently anti-LGBTQ+ and anti-women's rights. (I'm also anti-LGBTQ+, btw, seeing it as evil. Predestination does not excuse acting out. We're to overcome weakness, not give in.)

Another reason for the radical libs' anti-Israel stance is born of Marxism's anti-God agenda, even though the Palestinians are also God's people to a certain extent. They're more out-of-line with their ideals when it comes to God, hence more a tool of Satan, hence worthy of Marxist support.

A huge irony in this hypocrisy is that Jews, generally speaking, are very liberal. These college radicals are fighting against their own friendly fire among activists for world tyranny. (I don't get why Jews tend to be socialists, but they do.)

An honest person sees that Hamas intentionally hides among citizens that they have no concern for, hence the collateral damage in seeking them out. It's the Hamas terrorists' fault, not the Israelis', who have been exercising great restraint. And Hamas pilfers much of the incoming aid, knowingly jeopardizing their fellow Palestinians.

Another point of crass hypocrisy is that anyone can see that anti-semitism is racism, which the libs allegedly decry — while covering up the fact that historically, the racist Southern offenses were done largely by Democrats. It's projection: accusing the enemy of being what you yourself are. That's their embraced strategy (Rules for Radicals).

BTW, as for ideals, Strong's (2007) defines Israel: "H 3478 he shall rule as God" — the "Ye are Gods" theme of scripture (Isa. 41:23; Ps. 82:6; John 10:34; Philip. 2:5,6; Gal. 4:7; Rom. 8:16,17; Eph. 4:13...). That's our destiny, if we will.
