In my "I ♥ RAV" editorial, applauding Real America's Voice TV's excellent program, I threw Jeremy Herrell & Ted Nugget (too much bravado, not enough quality content) under the bus, so to speak, saying they are expendable to be replaced with better talent.

I need to apologize and redirect my sentiment. If I was running RAV, I'd move them to the night time hours until they clean up their act. Really, Ted? Spooning

Speaking of clean-up, Drew Hernandez needs to be careful about how explicit he's been getting in exposing the evils of gender fluidity and pedophilia. These are important subjects to be addressed, but you don't fight porn by showing examples of it. That is prone to trigger those susceptible to lust, e.g. most all men. Drew could draw RAV into problems, rightfully, with the FCC (?).
