Charity and Love

1. 4 I feel a sincere desire for the eternal welfare and happiness of other people. (Mosiah 28:3)
Sometimes I might revel in someone getting what they deserve; not wishing for them to go to the light soon enough.
2. 4 When I pray, I ask for charity—the pure love of Christ. (Moroni 7:47–48)
Always in morning prayer—for decades.
3. 4 I try to understand others' feelings and see their point of view. (Jude 1:22)
Sometimes it takes longer than it should.
4. 4 I forgive others who have offended or wronged me. (Ephesians 4:32)
Not as soon as it should sometimes.
5. 3 I try to help others when they are struggling or discouraged. (Mosiah 18:9)
About half of the inmates don't like being seen with me, so that puts a damper on reaching out.
6. 2 When appropriate, I tell others that I love them and care about them. (Luke 7:12–15)
We're in prison. Easy to take that wrong. Still, I could do better on this one.
7. 3 I look for opportunities to serve other people. (Mosiah 2:17)
Unless you include my studying and writing, in which case this would be closer to a perfect 5.
8. 4 I say positive things about others. (Doctrine and Covenants 42:27)
Need to improve on coming to someone's defense who is not present when others are talking negatively about them.
9. 4 I am kind and patient with others, even when they are hard to get along with. (Moroni 7:45)
I treat people kindly, even though they're rude to me—many of them.
10. 4 I find joy in others' achievements. (Alma 17:2–4)

Ave. 3.6 Could definitely do better in all 10.
