

Immodest Dress Among Conservatives Spurs Lust Evil

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus stated that "whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart." (Matt. 5:28). Immodest dress is a major contributor and inviter of such lustful looking in response. This is common sense.

Women love the attention they get when they dress immodestly. Some do it just because they consider it "fashionable," oblivious to how it affects men. However, I would point out that dressing immodestly is just as immoral as lusting. It takes two to Tango.

Why, therefore, do we see so much immodest dress among Christians? Christian patriots, being more awake and zealous for good, should especially know better.

Particularly egregious are some of the Real America's Voice (RAV TV) Female hosts. They need to set a good example, not model immodesty. Karyn Turk is otherwise a fabulous conservative talent.

To be fair, some do it practically as a counter-measure to hot temperature conditions.
