This morning, I had a brainstorm idea to begin a new feature on my website. It would be a daily list of highlights that I encounter in a day, such as news milestones, <sup>my</sup> commentary, cool products, show highlights, movies, Institute highlights/insights, conversations, great quotes. I'd try to keep it to one page, not more than two. Larger content would be ~~resolved~~ reserved for editorials and blog posts.

Because ~~many~~ <sup>much</sup> of the content will be bullet points which don't occupy a full line of text, "one page" of text content might usually occupy 2-3 pages.

~~of~~ I see this being an ongoing endeavor that will be greatly enhanced once the II ("two" - Infinite Interface) is activated.

General Activities

There are certain TV programs I regularly watch, multitasking with my studying, writing. On a week-day basis, this includes: 4:30 am Business First AM (14-1); 5-6 am TMD (better/more awake than Fox); 6-3 pm A mixture of <sup>(16-6)</sup> NTD (EpochTimesTV), <sup>(8-6)</sup> Scripps, Story TV, Glenn Beck radio, NASA TV (9-2); 3 pm DW (7-2 PBS); 3:30 BBC; 4:00 Funny You Should Ask (☺); 4:30 NHK (2-2); 5-6 Young Sheldon (Extremely well-written scripts. ~~I~~ Cute personalities.

I mentally note how often Sheldon overlooks God's <sup>clear</sup> hand in his atheist life. (Vicarious family social life.) Evening shows include AGT; American Idol; FBI (2-1); Chicago <sup>Med</sup> ~~MD~~, P.D.; Fire (5-1); Law & Order (5-1); Shark Tank (4-1); Penn & Teller (30-1/cw); Masters of Illusion (ditto); AFV; 60-min. → (Sunday)

liberal talent; smattering of God acknowledgement

I've been catching quite a few movies as well, to catch up on what I missed over decades of watching hardly any. I limit it to movies with good values, illustrating some of the good that this planet has come up with.

The TV shows I watch also help me scrutinize where the planet is at in its unfolding as an advanced-soul planet, along with educating me.

But the work I do in my scripture studies, especially Alphabetics, surpasses anything I find in my fellow-men, wisdom-wise. But floating in the midst of these TV shows and Movies are great samplings of God's wisdom in modern times.

On Saturday, I typically catch XPLORATION OUTER SPACE (6am 13-1 Fox); One Magnificent Morning (30-1); Wild Child (5-1). And on Sunday I usually watch Come Follow Me (5am 11-1 KBYU); BYU-Idaho Newtsonal; Latter-Day Profiles; The Chosen; and Christian music radio.
