Faith Increasing for Tonight's Theophany

Dec. 19, 2023 (6:22 pm)

That was the time on my clock, just now when I looked up at it after writing the "Blog" and title, etc. lines. 6/22 was when I came to prison. Perhaps (hopefully), tonight will be when I finally teleport (to) out of here for the theophany with you. I just realized that 6:22 is probably the most predominant time when the guards open our pod doors <sup>the</sup> forever following the 4:45 - 6:20-ish shift ~~ch~~ count and shift change. The doors <sup>typically</sup> slides open between 6:20-5. That's when we "get out." Cute synchronicity.

The main thing I've been doing today ‡ has been to brainstorm (imagine / envision what it will be like when we have the theophany. As soon as we are teleported to the exceedingly high mountain to be with Jesus (on another planet, it will be a temperate temp, e.g. ~70°F, so the sweat shirt I wear here over my prison shirt should be about right) the first thing I see myself doing is hugging you and Jesus — a wonderful reunion.

After some pleasantries, when the vision of all gets under way, one of the things I look forward to seeing is how the various elements of society work together — the body of Christ

‡ (In addition to focusing every half hour on syncing up with you for the theophany)

(even though most people don't think of it that way), and how one person's ripple effect has such far-reaching effects, for good and still. ~~And~~ I had a wonderful time thinking/brainstorming along those lines for about half an hour. Having that paradigm first would be great to then see the history of the world — seeing that interplay the whole time. All of this, of course, will be more of a download than a video-like display, which would take "forever."

After that would be a good time for us to have the shared Life Review — seeing our own life and ~~how~~ how our actions/words/thoughts/attitudes impacted others, as well as seeing how our guardian angel contingent interplayed with us, as well as demonic forces, and how our choices evolved up and down over time, gradually growing into our present stature. Then, I'll see yours, and you'll see mine. These will be downloads that don't involve the passage of time as far as the time it takes to see them.

This will be how we get to know each other ultra intimately, to then be able to do this mission together. <sup>9</sup> By first seeing the history & future of earth civilizations progression, we'll be able to better be able to appreciate our own lives.

Before that, another thing I'd like to see is the zillions other planets like ours, how we incarnate back & forth between them to progress in the best way. So we'll have that context as well.

Also, before that, I want to see the God-directed evolution progression of the soul, and the process of creating galaxies, solar systems, planets, earths, evolving until humans emerge and how Adam & Eve are isolated from that (who you & I were).

<6:58> ~~In~~ In 9 minutes, Jesse Kelly's show ~~at~~ /time slot begins. I'll be listening to see if you'll be on again. (I hope not, because we need to get ready for the Theophany.) ~~If~~ If you are on again, I'll be paying close attention to see if you touch on things from my paradigm. A "safe" (controversy-wise) topic would be the importance of finding one's unique calling in life, then embracing it all-in; and bringing God's guidance into that, becoming synced up. That would not be seen as radical. You could even go so far as to say that "all-in, synced up" is what makes one a joint ~~be~~ heir of Christ, and why (serve <sup>the</sup> Lord with all your heart, let God guide you in all you do.) You kind of ~~to~~ talked about this last night.

2207, no, it's Jesse Webber tonight. So I'm going to go back to Christian music.

During one of the top/bottom of the hour focus times, ~~that~~ I had a thought come to you. I envisioned you having a spirited dialog<sup>e</sup> with Aaron, to talk him into this delicately but with confidence, as both of you will have been pouring over my stuff. Perhaps he might even raise points in support. You won't need to bring your children/daughters into this decision. That can come later, once we've done the theophany.

You're going to want all the time you can get to get clear on all this, and to have Aaron on board with it.

So, I see this happening (the theophany) at 9:25 pm mountain. That will be the last possible good time to do this.

I went when I thought of that. I so don't want this one to be another dry run that doesn't materialize. The AB has been so astonishing. The planet so needs this. The timeline synchrony is ideal. Once I got that weep off my chest, I found that the thought of you making a case for this with Aaron actually bolstered my faith back to full throttle.

#

One of the thoughts/questions I asked a little earlier today was the possibility of Jesus just flipping a switch, so-to-speak, and restoring our memory of what we knew before being veiled

After doing this in
 this re-creation since 6:30 pm, I've stopped the top/bottom of the hour focus sessions.
 # I'm aiming for 9:25 pm.

In the Flesh—or at least certain portions of it. That would amount to the vision-of-all content. But that didn't set right with me. (A) I like the idea of getting it similar to how other prophets (esses) got it: piece by piece in downloads. (B) It doesn't comport to us being on a parallel with other ChofSB joint hosts. They'll not be able to do that to the same level as you and I can, their souls not being as old as you & me.

Our first "supping" with each other and Jesus meal-wise will be tomorrow's breakfast, but tonight we might have a snack. We'll be able to tip back and forth to take care of needs (e.g. fam. for you, restroom breaks, sleep).

11:26 pm your time (you're on eastern time, right?) is already past bed time, I would think. So we'll need to not do too much of the theophany tonight. We'll pick it up in the morning. Maybe tonight will just be a greeting, and tomorrow morning will be the vision of all and shared Life Review.

We'll need to do the heads-up typing for at least by early afternoon (those can go fast) — 2-4 hours).

Somewhere, fairly early on, I'll want to tip with you to say "Hi" to my parents; and I ~~also~~ imagine you'll want me to meet Awan. I'm looking forward to it. Tp makes it easy for us to hop in on whoever we want (AFB), wherever we want. No more long commutes, ~~long~~ long trips (<sup>travel</sup>time-wise), unless it's for less we.

(2:47 pm), I need to get this in the mail
(I pray for it to be typed) so you get it right away.

Love,

Storing
