

Democratic Party Should Be Reformed, Not Obliterated

To: Epoch Times Editorials

cc: Steven K. Bannon

by Sterling D. Allan, 228033

Aug. 20, 2022

In ~1999, I wrote an article titled something to the effect, "Democrats v. Republicans — Females v. Males" proposing that the intended relationship is marriage, not divorce. #

meanwhile, in the interim, the toxicity between these two <sup>parties</sup> has grown beyond dysfunctional.

The problem is not with the essentials of what the two parties are ideally at their best. The problem is that the divide & conquer tactic of the Marxist conspiracy, and their infiltration of both parties has been extremely successful, more so with the Dems than the Rep.s.

With the MAGA revolution, the Republican party has been undergoing a major re-vamping for the better (though certainly has a way to go). And while the radical Progressives have been increasingly outraged against the MAGA movement, honorable Democrats have been waking to the lies of these radicals and are becoming disenchanted.

Democrats have many parallels to female attributes in comparison, emotions, etc. For the environment. Republicans have many parallels to male attributes: legislative, judicial, military defense.

(2)

Just as MAGA has been clearing up the Republican Party, I can't help but think that a similar clean-up will occur in the Democratic Party.

Rush Limbaugh portrayed the Democratic Party as being the enemy of freedom. He was quite blind about the Marxist / Deep State conspiracy that has infiltrated every sector of society, including the Republican Party (heavily controlled by it), not just the Democratic Party (almost completely controlled by it).

midterm's red wave.

That backdrop is probably why conservative hosts, such as Steven <sup>h.</sup> Bannon call for the oblit-<sup>er</sup>ation of the Democratic Party, e.g. starting with <sup>the</sup>

Call me a romantic, but I still see the ideal relationship between <sup>the</sup> Democratic Party and Republican Party to <sup>be</sup> a marriage — after the cleansing / reformation of both is complete.

Sterling D. Allan

IndComing.com

#RepNDemMarriage.