

Blogs Preface For Tudor

Hello Tudor,

As you start into this blog post selection in envelopes (C) ^a - (E) in this large packet of material titled ^{"Bringing the} "King (& Queen) dom of Heaven to Earth - In a Few Days," I'd like to make some suggestions about how to get the most out of this.

This "Blog" section ^{often} utilizes the Alphabetic (AB) phenomenon I discovered in 1996, ~ March - 28 years ago. I'm absolutely certain (A) this phenomenon is a divine one, (B) is designed to help bring about the repentance clause (r.c.) of prophecy to ^{and} keep society from crashing to rock-bottom, ^{I was} (C) I'm foreordained to discover and utilize this code to help bring this about, (D) And, it would seem that you are foreordained to be the one who is able to accept this material for what is, step forward, and facilitate its coming to fruition.

This AB tool is an amazing manifestation of the foreknowledge of God in a highly detailed way - via the inspired sum of humanity down through time exhibited in the alphabetical sequence of words and the numbers associated therewith.

In the opening material was included a piece, "A General Suggestion for How to Best Appreciate the Enclosed Material" in which I listed five reference books that would be good for you, ^{to get,} in sequence of priority. I hope you've already done that so that they're now available for you to use by the time you've gotten this far in the material. If not, please do so now. It will enable you to get so much more out of this.

The last one in the list is by far the least important to secure because I don't cite it much, and it may be harder to source because of its age; ^(originally) And because it's ^{originally} widespread and inexpensive, most people would just toss it once it gets worn out.

You've seen that in the AB approach, I look up a given number, e.g. "Tudor" = 526, in these various texts, either 1 1 0 1 as a word number or page number, then consider the relevance of that page or def. #. The premise, from 2.5 decades of doing this (this kind of analysis), is that the more that thing is tied in to the great and marvelous work of the Father in these end times, the tighter and more insightful will be the resonance.

In order ^{for you} to appreciate what I come up with in doing this, at a minimum, I recommend that you read along with what I'm citing by opening to that page. I mentioned that suggestion in the aforementioned, "A General Suggestion..." prece.

But much better than that would be for you to put yourself in the original scholar position, and for you to look up the number and its vicinity in the various sources to see what relevance you can find — before you read what I found. In so doing, you'll (A) find things I didn't notate, (B) appreciate what I came up with, and (C) be in a much better frame of mind to pay attention to what I wrote in a way that is far more meaningful.

This is not casual reading. It is scholarship. Digging deep does not lend itself to speed-reading. The slower you read / ponder, the faster the thoughts (intuitive guidance / inspiration / revelation) come.

In this way, you'll be able to see how God's power is manifest in such a way to set forth highly specific and rich commentary on our day and how to manifest into reality the kingdom of heaven to earth. Most importantly, it validates key points of my paradigm that seem too extraordinary to consider as plausible otherwise, especially the whole HMITF & HFITF notion that ^{essentially} no-one is expecting, certainly not as I ~~pre~~ perceive it and AB confirms it.
