

TP U.S. Terrorist Immigrants to Parallel Planets - Opposites Switch Swap

by Sterling D. Allan, 228033

Dec. 28, 2023

Recently, I've been ~~to~~ mulling over how to take the edge off of the immigration crisis. First, to see my general sentiment about this, see my 9/11/2022 editorial, "Illegal Immigrants - As a Lion Among the Beasts of the Forest." And now, to appreciate what I'll be proposing in this present piece, see my 8/23/2022 editorial, "Teleportation [tp] as a Pending Gift of the Spirit." Another recent article of significant relevance that I ~~is~~ <sup>massive</sup>

I see there being at least two ^ threats from the present out-of-control immigration crisis. One is the number and severity of terrorist cells/adherants coming in to prep. for terrorist activities here (e.g. attacks on infrastructure, food production, supply chain, energy production; infiltration for manipulating crucial segments/elements of societal function; larger <sup>physical</sup> attacks on society such as 9/11 [which was an inside-designed and orchestrated and covered-up job (see my 8/21/2022 and 9/12/22 editorials)]). Another is the sheer number and its downward pull on the country, receiving Socialist benefits (credit cards, housing, medical, phones, transportation), voting <sup>(leaning)</sup> Democrat for more destructions of freedom, taking jobs from U.S. citizens here legally. Both of these put us on the brink.

Of course, there are other significant problems from the immigration crisis: (A) human trafficking with its sex victimization, esp. of children, as well as using children # be able to properly appreciate and the 12/25/2023 blog post, "New Year's piece is a postscript to that one. # # recommend that you read first, to understand this present article, is Timeline for New World Launch." This present

Another prerequisite need to help appreciate this present article is the 7/22/2023 Blog post, "Start Giving Global Conspirators Justice Via TP to Karma Planets." Planets' Blog

as a ticket for entry on a revolving door cycle; (B) drug flow into the country, esp. Fantasy 1; (C) empowering the gangs and cartel syndicates that profit massively and funnel those proceeds to crime and corruption of governments, esp. Mexico's; (D) revenue stream for China from the drugs and cartels; (E) signal to world of American weakness.

Regarding the sheer number of incoming illegals (not having legitimate amnesty requirements, just wanting a better opportunity [should follow legal migration & citizenship pathway]; or worse yet, having evil (e.g. terrorist) designs); right out of the gate, (in this present timeline scenario), ~~as~~ as part of the "Top Karma" event day, I see us (Chiefs) tying all the incoming immigrants, wherever they are on their journey, back to their place of origin - all at once - every one of them (the illegitimate ones). That would send a message to everyone pondering such a journey, to not do it. If they did, try, they'd be tied right back to where they came from at all subsequent such top actions. It would only take one Chief member to manage/handle this task. One AF13/Hel-10-5 command would take care of it immediately.

As for the terrorists who have already arrived, (<sup>~30-40 of them</sup>) who have the most dangerous/detrimental intentions and past episodes of successful attacks, I see a more elaborate scenario, as depicted in the title = Telepost (top) them to parallel planets, but in an "opposite" role. They would be replaced by the "good" counterpart for them from that planet, and they would be charged with stepping into that righteous persona, or they'll be tied to a jungle on another planet where they're on the menu, with only a knife to survive.

That parallel planet to ours will have already hit rock bottom — which the terrorists here have been trying to impose here — so they'll ~~not~~ now be on the receiving end of what they were trying to bring here — except now their persona they are switching places with has been trying to counteract the consequences of that evil; and they ~~are~~ (the ~~pos~~ terrorist from ~~this~~ our planet) will be tasked with continuing that resistance to evil. They'll not be ~~be~~ <sup>and network</sup> ~~ch~~umbered with the reputation^ they have gained here, so that will make it ~~easy~~ easier to turn over a new leaf. Instead, they'll be stepping into their opposite persona's life with its positive reputation and network.

These two personas will need to trade each other on their network and past intentions, so (A) the out-going terrorist can successfully transition to the good/righteous lifestyle; and (B) the in-coming righteous persona will know what he needs to contend with ~~to~~ to undo the plans and evil schemes that the terrorist had in mind.

I need to credit the 12/26 "Young Sheldon" episode (CW, 30-1) for spawning this idea. In that episode, Dr./Prof. St John Sturgis lost his job because in an interview with the media about the supercollider project he was part of in TX, he said there was a small (one in a trillion) chance it could give rise to a small black hole that could grow to eventually consume the planet... A conversation then ensued around the Cooper family dinner table discussing various scenarios. As the scenarios were breached, the episode depicted what it would look like for those at the table if that scenario came to pass. The first scenario was the black hole scenario, which manifest ~~as~~ with the sounding of the civil emergency siren, them turning the TV on, to find out they had only a few seconds to go. They showed sentiments of apology, hugged, and prayed in their last few seconds together.

Another scenario was that the black hole would open a wormhole to a parallel universe where people's personalities are opposite what they are here. Sheldon was a slacking goofball on the new <sup>rather than the prodigy child here.</sup> parallel planet. Missy ~~was~~ was a prissy, rather than social butterfly she is here. Their brother, George was the brainiac there, rather than the charismatic, carnality-seeker <sup>(but good-hearted person)</sup> he is here. Dr. Sturgis was a cowboy farm-hand there, rather than the brilliant scientist here. The mother Mary, was a prostitute-like wife there instead of the obnoxious Christian here. The dad, George, was the devout Christian there, instead of the beer-loving high school football coach he is here. It was hilarious.

A That <sup>series</sup> show is be close to becoming my favorite, close to overtaking "The Chosen", which is going down hill in its recent episodes — too sycophantish. Jesus is the lone lone good guy able to do wonderful things and be wonderful. It doesn't come close to depicting his efforts to raise everyone to be wonderful/powerful <sup>as well</sup>! It also does not do justice to the tentativeness of the disciples'/apostles' faith. They did not start out with full confidence that he was Messiah but gradually grew into that faith, increasing/decreasing in phases as they went along.

In order to trade and compare notes, the parallel but opposite personas in this case will be able to communicate via the II. And once the first of the II become ChoffFB, they'll be able to tip over to visit their counterpart.

And like with the scenario of tipping non-repentant key Marxist conspirators to a parallel planet to be on the receiving end of what they've been trying to do here; being watched in reality-show manner via the II; so also will we be able to observe / track the progress of the terrorists switching places with their opposite counterpart on a parallel planet that has hot rock bottom, as well as the good / righteous counterpart's progress here to undo the evil of the terrorist they're ~~repla~~ switching places with.

Also, like the key Marxist conspirators will be given a heads up at least a couple of days before they're tipped away, to give them an opportunity to choose to repent and begin taking significant measures towards repentance, which would avert their being tipped away; so also will we <sup>(Tudor & me in the present timeline)</sup> give a heads up to the key terrorists to give them an opportunity to repent and come clean, to avoid being tipped to a parallel planet that has hot rock bottom thanks to people like them.

We don't need to limit this to U.S.-infiltrated ~~to~~ key terrorists but could / should include terrorists infiltrated elsewhere with ~~profound~~ profoundly nefarious / evil designs.

Furthermore, something I just thought of to do after we tip these evil players away, will be to post a list of runners up that face similar consequences if they don't repent. This will both increase the immediate pressure for the worst/most evil players to repent; and it will put a spotlight of attention on them and their evil, so that they can be brought to justice and have necessary counter measures deployed to halt their plans and influence and network.

Today (or very soon), I plan to compose a heads-up brochure for these key terrorists, to urge them to repent, lest they incur these consequences.

Article Title ASCII Sum: 5907

I was "finished" with the laying out this scenario shortly after 10am, then did what I had planned to do from the beginning of starting this article this morning: I tabulated the title of this piece (after modifying the ending to make it more reflective/accurate/summarizing of the piece), then looked up that number in AB.

It turns out that at first I transposed<sup>(swapped)</sup> the 987 and looked in vicinity of OT def. H5709<sup>[8]</sup>. It actually is very relevant — consistent with the idea of swapping. I tentatively rated it a 9.8. Then I looked up H5907. Def H5906 alone gives this one a 10, and several other vicinity defs apply quite strongly as well.

The /10 = 591 variant isn't so resonant. (5907 only shows up in the OT lexicon.

↓ OT Def. H5907 & Terrorist Opposites Swap

• H5906 From H57897 the constellation of the Great Bear (perhaps from its migration through the heavens): — Arcturus

(A) ②

The def. H5789 from which it's derived conveys <sup>(A)</sup> the compressed timeline we're looking at unfolding in a few days; (B) the coalescing of opposite manifestations of ~~the same~~ what is essentially the same person, turning the evil manifestation to goodness, and using the good version of the person to undo the evil of the bad iteration of that person.

- H5789 to hasten [A] :- assemble self, [M.W.C "1:2" assemble to bring together (via II, then later via to) (as in a particular place for a particular purpose (repentance (remedying evil impact))]; to fit together the parts of; to meet together = convere; ant. • disperse, split (up) [swap]; • dissipate, scatter..."]

The def. just before <sup>H5906</sup> that is also loaded with resonance.

- H5905 from H5892 and <sup>8121</sup> H5775; city of the sun [i.e. planet in a different solar system in the universe]
  - H5892 from H5782 a city (a place guarded [hit rock bottom, in police state / tyranny] by a walking [paradigm shift from the swap] or a watch [via II well be able to observe their progress]) in the widest sense (even of a mere encampment or post [e.g. terrorist / cartel outposts] :- city, court [cabal quarters], town.
  - H5782 (through the idea of opening the eyes); to wake [from spiritual slumber] :- awake, waken, wake up, lift up (self), master [overcome evil], raise (up), stir up (self).

The def. before H5905 relates to the evil influence of terrorists: "H5904 city of a serpent."

~~H5903~~ H5903 relates to how these terrorists' nefarious schemes will be laid bare, "nudity: - naked, nakedness."

And how that will spur an awakening of society - especially those locations where the terrorists plotted to unfold their schemes: "city-wise." <sup>The proper name with that meaning is</sup> ~~It's~~ pronounced "Iran" - close to "Iran," perhaps the leading sponsor of terrorism.

Relating to swapped identities in parallel locations, the two defs before that mean, "H5900 a citizen; H5901 urbane."

I used the word "network" 3-5 times in the above article, relating to the sphere of influence and cooperation of the terrorists, for weaving their schemes. Hence the strong relevance of the def. immediately after H5907

- H5908 in the literal sense of entangling [quantum entanglement in the case of parallel universes linked by a wormhole]; a spider (as weaving a network): - spider. [A fairly close metaphor to the terrorist. Not too many people are not afraid of spiders. Some are terrified by them. So this adjoining def. has a close synonym of "terrorist" - spider.]

Another small critter that terrorizes many (including elephants, I've heard - when I was a kid) is this next def.

- H5909 from the same as H5908 in the secondary sense of attacking [terrorist attack]; a mouse (as nibbling [M-W-C "2: v. | nibble to consume or wear away gradually <boiling frog; incremental deterioration, e.g. by burning food plants, derailing trains, poisoning municipal water supplies >"]): - mouse

Now, here's the punchline. H5907 (ASCII sum of the title of this piece) derives from H5909, just cited.

It's the proper name "H5907 77777 'akbār :- Achbar.

"Alahu Akbar" = the terrorist rally cry and victory yell, meaning "God is greatest." John Krakaur (sp?) wrote the excellent book, Under the Banner of Heaven, itemizing /giving examples of horrendous evil done in the name of God, in which the conscience screaming "NO!" is over-ruled by religious/dogmatic zeal, and brainwashing.

The spider and the mouse are ideal metaphors for modern terrorists. One on one, <sup>when put in the clear,</sup> the human can easily conquer the spider or the mouse. But it's what they do in the dark that is terrifying. A spider bite can be lethal. Mice can wreak lethal effects as well - spreading disease, spoiling food, making holes that can be problematic. Hamas has burrowed under Gaza. ‡

Hence, the strong synonym relevance of these defs that follow:

- H5911 troubled
- H5912 to trouble; troublesome
- H5916 to ~~roll~~ roll water [boil frog]; Fog. to disturb or afflict: - trouble, stir
- H5917 troublesome
- H5918 muddler <sup>muddle</sup> { M-w-c. to make turbid or muddy; to befog or stupefy esp. w/ignor; to mix confusedly } = ant-awake
- H5929 to coil; an asp (from lurking coiled up): - adder

And as ~~fero~~ Muslim Terrorists exclaim, Alaha Akbar = "God is greatest," as if God sanctions their evil, <sup>immediately</sup> following the above set is:

- H5920 אלה 'al from H5927; the top; spec. the Highest (i.e. God); also a loft, to Jehovah: - above, high, most High
- H5927 אלה 'ala [Allah]; to ascend; (be high)...

Satan's objective is our subjection - global tyranny, which is what the terrorists help bring about, which is why the Marxists (many Democrats) support muslim extremists. Relevant to this, amidst the above set of words relating to terror are:

- H5913 to tie, spec. with fetters; to put on anklets...
- H5914 a fether; an anklet: - stocks...
- H5915 anklet

‡ M-w-c defines, "mouse & v. to move about in a shy or secret manner; syn. lark, pussy foot, stink, stinky, slinky, skin, snake, sneak, steal. 1: n. as in cowardly, pussy (is what empowers the terrorists) syn. milquetoast, nervous, wussy, namby-panby, weakling, wimp (e.g. "assassinated")

Above all these def's cited is a set that presents an antonym to the cowardice ~~that~~ / fear that empowers the terrorists is this set:

- H5894 a watcher, i.e. an angel (as guardian) [our guardian angel contingent knows all things and will guide us / protect us, if we'll sync up with its intuitive direction] :- watcher
- H5896 wakefulness
- H5897 Fugitive [M-W-C "v. adj. moving from place to place"; (A) <sup>key</sup> trying terrorists away, and their opposite here; (B) terrorists skulking]
- H5898 the city of salt [SLC is supposed to be a light to the world on issues like this but are in bed with the Marxists / Muslim extremists... (3 No. 16:15)]

Can you see why I rated this one a rare 10? This is one of the longest spans & of relevant def's I've found - many of them super-relevant.

(9.9) I H5709 (729 swap) & Terrorists Opposites Swap

I misspoke earlier when I said I first, inadvertently, looked in the vicinity of H5709. It was actually the vicinity of H5809 (one digit off by one) that ~~was~~ is so relevant. But looking at H5709, now, I see a little relevance worth mention.

- H5709 :- alter [swap opposites], depart [to away], pass (away) [~~to~~ if they don't attempt to switch to the righteous approach, they'll be to'd to a planet's jungle where they're on the menu], remove [to parallel planet], take (away) [from our planet].

In vicinity, some relevance includes:

H5703 a (peremptory [M-W-C "l: adj. putting an end to... = not providing an opportunity to show cause why one should not comply <not relevant here because (A) ~~it~~ exposes truth of matter; (B) we'll give them a heads up >; admitting of no contradiction <Hopefully they'll repent >; expressing of urgency <2 day notice > or command <of God > " ] ) terminus [end up on parallel planet]; i.e. duration in the sense of advance or perpetuity [they may want to stay after investing so much energy in comparing to the righteous person's life they're swapping with] :- ...perpetually, world without end.

H5704 as far [somewhere else in the universe] as; of space [universe], or time [it is instantaneous] or degree (equally with) [equal in an opposite person sense]...

H5706 :- prep [of terrorists]
& H5713, 5

H5707 a witness [any who wish to watch along via the ~~it~~]; testimony [urging others in similar circumstance to repent]; spec a recorder [~~it~~ accesses all info from heaven repository]...

H5708 ~~is~~ :- filthy [evil]

↓ H5709 [above]

H5710 to advance [(A) promotes growth, significantly, for both parties of each swap; (B) promotes societal repentance; (C) promotes repentance of other terrorists.], i.e. pass on [~~it~~ to <sup>tipid</sup> to another planet] or continue [to continue life there]: to remove [~~ditto~~]; bedeck [step into opposite parallel life and do it well] :- pass by [to doesn't involve transit; it takes an object from one location directly to another], take away [~~ditto~~ H5709]...

H5712 assemblage (spec. a concourse, or gen. a family or crowd) [only the terrorist and close accomplices will be ~~trid~~ / ~~swit~~ swapped, ~~if~~ the person does well in the transition, even their closest associates and friends won't be able to tell they've been swapped.]

- H5714 timely <sup>(A)</sup> [the world needs this now. The timeline calls for this in a few days from now.] :- Iddo <sup>(B)</sup> [the wedding event is a couple of weeks after the "Tp Kama" event day when this will occur.]

(9.9) ↓ H5807 & Terrorist Opposites Swap

OT def H5807 and a bunch of defs on this vicinity (H5794, 7, 8, 5804, 7, 8, 10-22) all relate to Isa. 52:10 "The Lord hath made his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth [as well as many other earth-like planets] shall see the salvation of our God."

- H5807 forcibleness :- might, strength.

The two defs prior relate to the tp swap.

- H5805 desertion (of inhabitants) [(A) the opposite & good persona replacing the evil terrorist, now advocating for repentance, reconciliation, healing, will be perceived by his fellow comp terrorists to be a traitor to their cause. This will not be easy to navigate. (B) The terrorist being tp'd away will have to resist/disregard the sentiment that he's deserting his cause.] :- forsaking [ditto] [M-w-c "forsake to cause to remain behind <associates>; syn. = a'badon, desert, leave, maroon, quit, strand"]; ant. = reclaim <is what this is designed to accomplish - on both planets>]

There are several defs that relate to the evilness of these terrorists:

- H5791 to wrest [the truth and reputation of Islam] :- crooked, make crooked, falsifying [using civilians as human shields, making the oppoert look evil when coming after them], over-throw [ing legitimate governance to replace with dogmatic, radical evil zeal], deal perversely [willing, saving] storing weapons in hospitals, schools, etc.], pervert, subvert, turn upside down.

- H5792 oppression [women can't go to school, show face, etc] :- Wrong.
- H5794 vehement [radical zeal], harsh :- fierce, greedy, roughly...
- H5795, 6, 9 goat
- H5799 scapegoat [citizens as human shields]
- H5804 ארץ עازא :- Azzah, Gaza [three removed from H5807]

Also along the lines of the "desertion :- forsaking" (H5805) set are?

- H5800 to loosen [let go from evil, leave planet], i.e. relinquish, permit } :- commit self [will make all the difference for the swarming parties], fail [if they don't commit], forsake [redirect zeal from terror to healing and goodness], fortify [against evil], help [improve], leave [to], leave destitute [is what terrorists want to do], leave off, refuse [if they refuse to repent, they'll be told to be on the jungle diet], surely [thru AB resonance shows this scenario to be of God].

H5801 letting go [of former, evil life]; trade [swap places]...

H5802 stern [in English, as an antonym of me, is immediately after "sterling", naming (by code) me as the one coming up with this idea (by inspiration)] depopulator [thru (A) trying terrorists away (swarming, so no reduction in population; (B) this is to prevent terrorist-intended depopulation]

[M-W-C "stern l. adj. harsh and threatening in manner or appearance" (relates to terrorists); given to exacting standards of discipline and self-restraint (relates to me).]

heavy-handed, rigid, severe, tough forbidding, grim, gruff, intimidating,
 an thestarian, hard,
 austere, clear, fierce, flinty,
 rough, rugged, stark, ungentle.

(9.5) ↓ NT Def. G591 & Terrorist Opposites Swap

Let me start with a postscript to my 12/26 post:
" '45-pp. Timeline article tp'd to Tudor on 12/25/2023' " AB analysis on that string. The substring "tp'd to Tudor" = 1183, p.1183 str.'07 includes the entry ~~th~~ "Tithe." With that in mind, look at this juxtaposition preceeding this present vicinity set of defs around G591 that relate to tp'ing terror unrepentant terrorists to a parallel planet that has crashed to rock bottom, to swap places with an opposite soul there who has been trying to push back against terrorists.

• <preface>

- G584 to show off [this piece/article is one of the best I've ever written to illustrate the power and specificity of the AB code I discovered in 1996, March], i.e. exhibit [Isa. 41:21 "bring forth your strong reasons"]; fig- to demonstrate [the significance of AB, and importance in showing the hand of the Lord being made bare in a new, unexpected way], i.e. accred- it [M-W-C "accredit 1: v. to give official... power to (i.e. God's stamp of approval on my work and paradigm derived from the AB code as set forth in N→O and other articles at IndComing.org]; to declare ~~th~~ enthusiastic approval of; syn. • credit, impute; • authorize, certify, commission, em- power, enable, invest, license, qualify, vest, warrant; • acclaim, applaud, cheer, hail, praise, salute, tout; • ap- probate, approve, authorize, clear, confirm, finalize (looking at 1/1 to launch all this), ratify, sanction...]; -prove, [Is this one good enough for you, Dad?], approve, set forth, shew [p.1043 str.'07 "Aaron Dixon" ASCII (12/27 blog post)]

[That ties this present def. to the present piece about trying terrorists.]

- G587 accepted [after no one has embraced my work, per the "none to answer" prophecy that Tudor is poised to resolve now, hopefully], i.e. agreeable:-acceptable. [The launch of this scenario, hopefully on 4/1 launches the acceptable year of the Lord" (Isa. 61=1,2)]

• G592 to disjoin [to away] (by a boundary) [zillions of light-years away], fog. a party [switch places with the opposite persona] :- separate.

• G593 [this def. relates to the terrorists rejection of common sense and conscience, not trusting in God in the name of being zealous for God, when the loyalty is to peer pressure and mob mentality of man's interpretations] to disapprove, i.e. to repudiate :- disallow [1 Pet. 4:47], reject.

• G594 [this def. gives the opposite meaning - of embracing God, personally, for one's own self (JST-Mark 9:<sup>48,49</sup>40-48) on the appendix], all in, synced up] acceptance :- acceptation [594 = "Donald" DSC#]
